MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION
OF
The Indo-American Chamber of Commerce

1. The name of the Company (hereinafter referred to as the Association) is the INDO-AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

2. The registered office of the Association will be situated in the State of Maharashtra.

3. The objects for which the Association is established are:

   (A) The main objects of the Association to be pursued by the Association on its incorporation are:

   (1) To further the development of commerce and the setting up of industries between India and the United States.

   (2) To promote the mutual interests of India and the United States and generally to encourage and facilitate the transaction of business between them in both directions.

   (3) To aid and promote the establishment of Companies based on collaboration between parties in India and the United States.

   (4) To collect and disseminate statistics and relevant information and to undertake and carry out and/or assist and collaborate in carrying out research and/or study pertaining to the commercial and industrial relations between India and the United States.

   (5) To promote and protect the trade, commerce and manufactures of its members and in particular the trade, commerce and manufactures of Indo-American collaboration companies.

   (6) To establish a forum for discussion and deliberation of matters and problems relating to the mutual interests of Members, by organizing seminars, conferences and meetings in India and the United States.

   (7) To make representations to Government in regard to legislative and other measures affecting trade, commerce and manufactures of its Members and the establishment of Indo-American collaboration companies.
(B) The objects incidental or ancillary to the attainment of the main objects are:

1. To mediate in any differences between Members of the Association and/or between a Member and a non-member.

2. To arbitrate and settle disputes arising out of commercial transactions between parties willing to abide by the judgement and decision of the Association.

3. To communicate with Chambers of Commerce and other mercantile bodies in India and throughout the world and concert and promote measures for the protection of trade, commerce and manufactures of its Members and especially Indo-American collaboration companies.

4. To acquire by purchase, take on lease or otherwise, lands and buildings and all other property movable and immovable which the Association for the purposes thereof, may from time to time think proper to acquire.

5. To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease or let under lease, sublet, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with, all or any part of the property of the Association.

6. To construct upon any premises acquired for the purpose of the Association any building or buildings for the purposes of the Association and to alter, add to, or remove any building upon such premises.

7. To accept donations and gifts and to borrow or raise any moneys required for the purposes of the Association upon such terms and in such manner and on such securities as may be determined, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock charged upon all or any of the property of the Association.

8. To subscribe to, become a member of, and cooperate with any other Association, whether incorporated or not, whose objects are altogether or in part similar to those of this Association and to procure from and communicate to any such Association such information as may be likely to forward the objects of this Association.

9. To establish and support, or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds or trusts calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Association or the dependants or connections of such persons and to grant pensions and allowances, to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe, donate or guarantee money for any charitable, patriotic or benevolent purposes or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object.
(10) To do all such other things as may be necessary for or incidental or conducive to the extension of trade, commerce or manufacture, or the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(11) Political discussions shall be excluded.

(C) Other objects; None.

Provided that the Association shall not support with its funds or endeavour to impose on or procure to be observed by its Members or others any regulation or restriction which if an object of the Association would make it a trade union.

4 The objects of the Association shall extend to the territories comprised in the Union of India

Corrections: The objects of the Association extend to the territories comprised in the Union of India and the United States of America. (Passed in the EGM on Tuesday, March 30, 1999)

5 (1) The income and property of the Association whenever derived shall be applied solely for the promotion of its objects as set forth in this Memorandum.

(2) No portion of the income or property aforesaid shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to persons who, at any time, are or have been Members of the Association or to any one or more of them or to only persons claiming through any one or more of them.

(3) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to enable the Association to carry on any commercial activity or any activity with a view to earn any profits. However, the Association shall be entitled to reimburse itself for the actual expenses incurred by it (including the maintenance, cost of overheads) where, in any year, any surplus is left after deducting all the expenditure, as aforesaid, the expenditure to be incurred in the year immediately following shall first be met from out of the surplus of the previous year.

(whole paragraph deleted by passing a special resolution in the 18th AGM on Saturday, May 9, 1987)

(4) Except with the previous approval of the Central Government no remuneration or other benefit in money or money’s worth shall be given by the Association to any of its Members, whether officers or servants of the Association or not, except payment of out-of-pocket expenses, reasonable and proper interests on money lent, or reasonable and proper rent on premises let to the Association.

(5) Except with the previous approval of the Central Government no
Members shall be appointed to any office under the Association which is remunerated by salary, fees or in any other manner not excepted by sub-clause 4.

(6) Nothing in this clause shall prevent the payment by the Association in good faith of reasonable remuneration to any of its officers or servants (not being Members) or to any other persons (not being a Member), in return for any services actually rendered to the Association.

The above sub-clauses (5) and (6) are subject, however, to the limitation that such activity should not be carried on for profit.

6 No alteration shall be made to this Memorandum of Association or to the regulations contained in the Articles of Association which are for the time being in force, unless the alteration has been previously submitted to and approval by the Central Government.

7 Clauses 5 and 6 contain the conditions on which a license is granted by the Central Government to the Association in pursuance of section 25 of the Companies Act, 1956.

8 The liability of the members is limited.

9 Every Member of the Association undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association in the event of its being wound up during the time he is a Member, or within one year afterwards, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before the time at which he ceased to be a Member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the same, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves such amount as may be required not exceeding Rs. 100/- (Rupees One hundred only).

10 True accounts shall be kept of all sums of money received and expended by the Association and the matters in respect of which such receipt and expenditure take place and of the property credits and liabilities of the Association; and, subject to any reasonable restrictions as to the time and the manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed in accordance With the regulations of the Association a for the time being in force the accounts shall be open to inspection of the Members. Once at least in every year, the accounts of the Association shall be examined and the correctness of the Balance Sheet, and Income & Expenditure Account ascertained by one or more properly qualified auditor or auditors.

11. If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Association, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects, similar to the objects of the Association, to be determined by the members of the Association at or before the time of dissolution and in default thereof by such Judge of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay as may have or acquire jurisdiction in the matter.
12. We, the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed, are desirous of being formed into an Association in pursuance of this Memorandum of Association.

17. The Members of the Executive Council shall elect one of their number to be the President of the Chamber. The term of office of the President shall be ordinarily for a period of one year commencing from the date of his election until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting.

The President shall be the ex-officio Chairman of the Meeting of the Executive Council, but if the President is not present, one of the Executive Vice-Presidents, being elected as hereinafter provided, shall be the Chairman of the meeting. In the event of both the President and the Executive Vice-Presidents being absent, the members of the Executive Council present shall choose one among them to be the Chairman of the meeting.

18. The office of the President shall alternate between an American citizen or a foreign citizen resident in India or a foreign citizen resident in India and an American citizen or a foreign citizen resident in India being available and willing at the time, an Indian citizen representing an American corporation or an affiliate of an American corporation shall be eligible for the office of the President.

Corrections:
The office of the President may alternate between An American citizen or a foreign citizen resident in India and an Indian citizen. In the event of no American citizen or foreign citizen resident in India being available and willing at the time, an Indian citizen representing an American Corporation or an affiliate of an American Corporation shall be eligible for the office of the President.

(Passed at the EGM on Tuesday, March 30, 1999)

One of the last retiring Executive Vice-Presidents shall, if proposed for the office of the President be elected the President of the Chamber for the following term subject to the requirement of citizenship as aforesaid.
Alternate Member  19  Subject to Section 313 of the Act, the Executive Council may appoint a person as an alternate member of the Executive Council to act for a Member of the Executive Council (hereinafter called "the Original Member") during his absence for a period of not less than three months from India. An Alternate Member appointed under this article shall vacate the office if and when the Original Member returns to India.

Power to fill in Vacancy and to make addition to Executive Council  20  The Executive Council shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any other qualified person to be a Member thereof, either to fill in a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Executive Council, but so that the total number of the Members of the Executive Council shall not at any time exceed the maximum fixed under Article 16. The continuing Members of the Executive Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in that body, but if and so long as their number if reduced below the quorum fixed by these Articles for a meeting of the Executive Council, the continuing Members not being less than two may act for purposes of increasing the number of Members to that fixed for the quorum or of summoning a General Meeting, but for no other purpose.

Executive Vice-Presidents  21  The Executive Council shall appoint two of its Members to be Executive Vice-Presidents of the Chamber, at least one of whom shall be an American citizen or a foreign citizen resident in India. In the event of no American citizen or foreign citizen resident in India being available and willing at the time, an Indian citizen representing an American corporation or an affiliate of an American Corporation shall be eligible for the office of the Executive Vice President.

Transitional provisions for election to the Executive Council  22  (A) At the first Annual General Meeting held next after the date of the General Meeting at which these alterations in the Articles of Association of the Chamber are adopted and at every subsequent Annual General Meeting, one-third of such of the Members of the Executive Council for the time being as are liable to retire by rotation, or if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then, the number nearest to one-third, shall retire from office.

(B) The members of the Executive Council to retire by rotation at every Annual General Meeting shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment, but as between persons who became members of the Executive Council on the same day, those who are to retire shall, in default of and subject to any agreement among themselves, be determined by lot.
(C) At the Annual General Meeting at which a Member of the Executive Council retires as aforesaid, the Chamber may fill up the vacancy by appointing the retiring member of the Executive Council or some other member thereto.

(D) If the place of the retiring member of the Executive Council is not so filled up and the meeting has not expressly resolved not to fill vacancy, the meeting shall stand adjourned till the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or if that day is a public holiday, till the next succeeding day which is not a public holiday, at the same time and place.

(E) If at the adjourned Meeting also, the place of the retiring Member of the Executive Council is not filled up and that meeting also has not expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy, the retiring member of the Executive Council shall be deemed to have been reappointed at the adjourned meeting, unless:

(i) at the meeting or at the previous meeting a resolution for the reappointment of such member of the Executive Council has been put to the meeting and lost;

(ii) the retiring member of the Executive Council, has by notice in writing addressed to the Chamber or its Executive Council, expressed his unwillingness to be so re-appointed;

(iii) he is not qualified or is disqualified for appointment.

(iv) a resolution whether special or ordinary, is required for his appointment or reappointment in virtue of any provisions of the Act.

(F) All non-elected Members of the Executive Council shall, however, retire at each Annual General Meeting.

Election of members of Executive Council

23 Members of the Executive Council shall be elected in the manner hereinafter specified in Articles 43 & 48.

Tenure of office of Executive Council

24 The new Executive Council shall take office on the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting and shall continue to act until the conclusion of the next Succeeding Annual General Meeting.
