

India Economic Outlook And FX Hedging Strategies For Corporates

Standard Chartered Speakers profile

Ms. Kanika Pasricha

Economist, India

Ms. Kanika Pasricha - Kanika provides macroeconomic research for the India economics team, based in Mumbai. She previously worked for about eight years in the Treasury Research Group at ICICI Bank, where she specialised in macro and policy research on the Indian economy. Apart from India, she has extensive experience in research on emerging-market economies, with a special focus on China. Her papers have been published in international journals and received media coverage. Kanika has been involved in projects providing policy recommendations to the Ministry of Finance. She holds a Master's in economics from Delhi School of Economics, where she was awarded a merit scholarship.

Ms. Richa Malhotra

Executive Director –
Head Global Execution Services,
Financial Markets

Ms. Richa Malhotra - Richa is commerce graduate from SRCC in Delhi, after which she completed her articleship with KPMG, Delhi. Soon after qualifying as a chartered accountant, she moved to Standard Chartered in Mumbai, where she has been for the last 20 years. After spending her first few years in the Business Finance and Strategy division of the Bank, she joined the Financial Markets team in 2008. In the last 13 years in FM she has covered a large gamut of clients - from Medium Enterprises to Large Corporates to Global Subsidiaries and have worked with them on risk management solutions spanning FX, rates and commodities. She now heads the Global Execution Services Vertical within Financial Markets, with key focus on digitisation and automation.

Mr. SM Bharatwaj

Executive Director - Head Liabilities
Commercial Banking, India

Mr. SM Bharatwaj – Bharat has rich experience in BFSI of more than 20 years. From past 15 years with SCB he has been instrumental in turning around business segments. He was head of South India for Medium Enterprise business and currently India head for Liability business. He is a Senior Executive, leader & strategist in cash business, A leading domain expert in Fintech, E-Commerce, Payments landscape, MNC business and open banking technologies. A Technology evangelist, helping clients transform their payments and collections business using technology as an accelerator.