

Indo-American Chamber of Commerce (IACC) Welcomes the Confirmation of Eric Garcetti as the U.S. Ambassador to India

The Indo-American Chamber of Commerce (IACC) congratulates Eric Garcetti on his confirmation as the U.S. Ambassador to India.

IACC's National President Dr. Lalit Bhasin said that "the India – U. S. relationship is extremely important and one of our most critical strategic relationships. It's a very good thing we now have a permanent Ambassador. On behalf of all IACC members I extend best wishes to Ambassador Garcetti for a very successful tour of duty in New Delhi.

As India has taken up the G20 presidency this year with the theme of "One Earth, One Family, One Future", the presence of Ambassador Garcetti in new Delhi would provide stimulus to the efforts of both the countries for achieving critical goals of exploring collaboration based on mutual trust and confidence, furthering the economic integration, bolstering transparency, resilience, and security in global supply chains and boost economic prosperity in both countries, as well as the Indo-Pacific region.

We welcome the appointment of former Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti as the U.S. Ambassador to India and will continue our close engagement with the U.S. Embassy under him for IACC's key objective of advancing bilateral trade and investment relationship."
